THE CONTEST CLOSED.

Miss Nellie Follis, of this Place, Who Took the Lead at the Start, Won Out.

HEAVY VOTE POLLED LAST SATURDAY.

The piano contest which has been going on for the past four months, closed last Saturday night at 7:00 o'clock, the vote being announced at 9:00 o'clock, showing that Miss Nellie Follis, of this place, was the successful contestant. Mrs. C. M. Russell, also of this city, was voted second, Mrs. J. C. Browning, Milltown, third; Miss Julia Price, Bliss, fourth; and Miss Rose Hunn, Columbia, fifth.

1st prize, piano free. $350 00
2nd prize, $350 piano for 90 00
3rd prize, $350 piano for 100 00
4th prize, $350 piano for 110 00
5th prize, $350 piano for 120 00

In addition to above, numerous small prizes were given to the contestants for sales of coupon books made by them.

All day Saturday the friends of Miss Follis, Mrs. Russell, Mrs. Browning, and Miss Price, were active. The voting commenced at 6 a. m., and continued without ceasing until 7 p. m. At 4 o'clock in the afternoon the race was conceded by all who were interested to be between Miss Follis and Mrs. Russell, many believing that the latter would be the successful candidate, but Miss Follis' friends did not surrender, and voted rapidly until the closing hour. While the Committee was counting the vote, Russell & Co's, store was crowded with anxious supporters, and people were also lined thick upon the outside. At 9 o'clock Mr. L. B. Hurt, at the instance of the Committee, announced the vote, showing that Miss Follis had won by over a million votes. Her supporters went wild, and those who worked for other candidates cheerfully submitted. The standing of the candidates on the final vote is published elsewhere in this paper.

On The Road.

Mr. Ray Flowers, traveling representative of the News, visited Burkesville, Edmonton, Summer Shade and several other points last week, and at each stop he did a fairly good business for this publication.

At Burkesville he met a number of old friends, found them enjoying good health and making preparations to receive an increased spring trade. The directors of the Cumberland County Fair Association will make an effort to give the best exhibition this year that has been pulled off since the organization of the Association.

In the last few years some valuable improvements have been made in Burkesville. A number of new and handsome residences have been erected, and others will go up this year.

The Bank of Cumberland is doing a good business, there being a steady demand for money, and deposits good.

The hotel accommodations are good, courteous treatment unsurpassed, hence the weary traveler is made to feel at home.

Horace Alexander, the Chesterfield of Burkesville, was met at Waterview. There is not a more polished gentleman in Kentucky, nor one who will take more interest in a friend.

From Waterview he went to Summer Shade, finding business lively. He was encouraged by nearly all the merchants in town. Harvey, White & Toomey have a magnificent business house and are receiving a fine trade. Mr. Oscar Harvey, who is connected with the store, has just recovered from an operation which was performed in Louisville. He at one time was in school at Columbia, and was exceedingly kind to the News representative. Edmonton was the next point. He found the business of the Capital of Metcalfe very good, the town crowded with commercial travelers, and all mankind at peace with the world.

On his way home he checked up at Gradyville, stopping at the Wilmore Hotel, where he received the best of accommodations. The new bank recently opened at this place is doing nicely, and for a nice calendar order from this institution the News representative is thankful.

At the Parsonage.

Last Sunday afternoon Mr. Vervin Compton, son of Mr. Louis Compton and Miss Pearl Kemp, daughter of Mr. Squire Kemp, drove into Columbia and to the residence of Rev. B. M. Currie where they were happily married. They left immediately for their home in the Portland country. This couple have many friends in the west end of this county, all of whom will be glad to hear of their union.

Temperance Rally at the Court House.

Sunday afternoon April the 9th, at 2:30, N. A. Palmer, President of the anti-saloon league, will address the citizens of Columbia, at the court house at 2:30 p. m., April the 9th, 1911. Dr. Palmer is a man of ability, and should have a good hearing. On Sunday evening at 7:30, there will be a union temperance mass meeting at the Methodist church. Dr. Palmer will again address the people.

Dr. Palmer will also address the people of Cane Valley Sunday morning, April 9th, at 10:30.

Death of An Old Lady.

Mrs. Elizabeth Mayes, of this place, who was 61 years old, died at the residence of her son, Mr. Jim Mayes, last Wednesday evening. The deceased had been confined to her bed for several months with consumption. She leaves a son and three daughters.

Mrs. Mayes was loved by every one who knew her, and will be greatly missed by her neighbors and friends.

She had been a member of the Christian Church for many years, and lived up to her profession. The funeral services were held in the Christian church at Roley, last Thursday afternoon, conducted by Rev. J. R. Woodrum. There were many present to pay their respect to one who lived a long and upright life, and who was ready to meet her God.

Her body was laid to rest in the Roley cemetery. X

Virginia Plantation for Sale.

Beautiful Colonial Estate, located in Mecklenburg county within 1 1/2 miles of two railroads, containing 730 acres of land, 150 acres of which is fertile alluvial soil, remainder upland, in good condition. One mile of rock fence.

The buildings consist of a stone mansion, 15 large rooms, large reception hall, several rooms in basement and attic, large barns, 5 tobacco houses complete with flues, 8 tenant houses, orchard, vineyard, and pecan grove in full bearing. This beautiful old home can be purchased at $20,000, 1/2 cash, remainder to suit purchaser. The dwelling alone cost over $40,000 to build. If interested, write at once.

W. E. Harris, 911 E. Main St., Richmond, Va.

A Card.

Having sold my one half interest in the roller mill at this place and also one half interest in the Russell Creek mill to Mr. Geo. M. Stevenson, a former citizen of Russell County, who is now in possession, I desire to return my sincere thanks to the people of Adair and adjoining counties for the liberal patronage the mills have received. I have known Mr. Stevenson for a number of years, and I take pleasure in testifying to his good character, an honest upright man. Mr. G. B. Smith remains with the mills, known to almost every body in the county as an excellent gentleman and miller. The business will be conducted over the firm name of Smith and Stevenson.

H. McBeath

Not Seriously Hurt.

Last Tuesday morning Mr. R. R. Conover, who lives one and a half miles from Columbia, was kicked in the face by a horse and it was first thought that his chin bone was broken, and that he was otherwise seriously hurt. As Mr. Conover is quite an aged man, every body was apprehensive of the result. After the physicians examined him, his condition was reported not alarming, as no bones were broken. He was considerably bruised and was quite sore for several days. He is now getting along all right.

The Paull Drug Company will remove their stock of goods into the building, now occupied by Mr. W. H. Wilson, the 15th of this month. Mr. Wilson will remove his groceries into the ell part of the same building. The building in which the Paull Drug Co., is now doing business, will be razed, and a brick structure, running back to the alley, will be erected which will be occupied, when completed, by the drug Company. Messrs. Frank Sinclair and G. W. Dillon will build on their lot at the same time. It is our understanding that Mr. W. H. Wilson has the refusal of this building when ready for occupancy. The two will be handsome buildings and will add greatly to the appearance of the square.

Our correspondents will please observe the following: A number of them are in habit of dropping in an "ad" in their letters for the benefit of their local business men. It is worth ten cents a line to publish that character of matter, and such items will not be published, gratis. For instance a correspondent will say that the local merchant has just received a nice line of goods and invites the people to call. That character of matter is an advertisement and our price for such is ten cents a line for the first insertion and 5 cents a line for each subsequent insertion. Another matter: Do not send in stock items without giving prices.

Mr. J. M. Patterson, St. Louis, Mo., will make an address on Missions and Methods of Church Work, at the Presbyterian church, on Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. Patterson is a field secretary of the Presbyterian church for the south and southwest, and will bring the information of an expert in his line of work. Every body interested in the development of methods and missions is cordially invited to hear Mr. Patterson.

Mr. Sam Beck purchased a one-half interest in Mr. Hugh Richardson's grocery store, last week. The business will be conducted over the firm name of Richardson & Beck. It is not new business for Mr. Beck, he having conducted a grocery store here for several years. The News extends its best wishes to the firm, commending it to the purchasing trade.

Mr. J. B. Russell, one of Adair county's best citizens, is now a resident of Columbia, having removed his family to this place, from Watson, last Friday. He is occupying the home he recently purchased from Mrs. Mary Hudson, near the Fair Grounds. Columbia is glad to welcome Mr. Watson and his family.

Mr. Geo. M. Stebbenson has purchased Mr. McBeath's one third interest in the two roller mills, and is now a full partner of Mr. G. B. Smith. Mr. McBeath being entirely out of the business. The latter publishes a card to his friends which can be found in this paper.

A team representing the Russell Creek Baptist Academy, Campbellsburg, will cross bats with the Lindsey-Wilson club next Saturday afternoon, the game to be played at this place. Admission 25 cents. Every body should attend.

Mr. Thos. C. Purdy, father of Mr. A. D. Purdy, who married Miss Effie Dohoney, this county, died on the 23rd of March at his late home, Bradfordsville. He was 81 years old, a member of the Methodist Church, and one of Marion County's most prominent wealthy citizens.

Rev. Walter E. Frazee, State Sunday School evangelist and secretary for the Christian church, held a Bible School Institute at the Christian church, Columbia, beginning Friday night, March 31, continuing until Sunday morning, April 2. His addresses were inspiring and helpful. His conferences with the workers were practical, and in these he set forth quite clearly the meaning of the Front Rank Bible School. His missionary address on Sunday morning to the Bible school and church was full of spiritual power, and was one on a high plane of intellectual thought, showing him to be a man of the hour acquainted with the field, its needs and its workers. We shall be glad when he comes again.

Editor of News:—I noticed in your issue of the 29th, that the Denmark correspondent stated that I sold a piece of land for twice its value. I do not know who wrote the item, but the fact is, I never got the value of the land. Furthermore, I never knew a piece of land located near Denmark, to sell for its full value, and it is the same way over Russell county. A great deal of the Russell county land is good, and she has an excellent citizenship. What is needed is better farmers and fewer knockers.

W. F. Rowe.

Judge Geo. Herriford, of this place, has removed with his family to the country. He has purchased the farm of J. P. Todd, known as the Wm. Francis farm, lying on the Campbellsville pike, 4 1/2 miles from Columbia. Judge Herriford, wife and daughter make a fine family of people, and our citizens regretted very much to see them leave town. The consideration for the farm was $1,650.

The advertisement of my stock will appear in next issue of the News. Regret that it could not be given now, but application for register certificate was lost, and therefore the delay. Not only will my stock be registered, but will show the richest blood lines of any horses in this part of the state Call and see them. A. S. Chewning.

Rev. J. F. Claycomb, who at one time was pastor of the Presbyterian Church, this place, but who has had charge of a Church at Pontotoc, Ill., for several years, has removed, with his family, to Sturgis, Ky. A new $12,000 church building has been erected in that city, and Mr. Claycomb called to the pastorate.

We wish to call a meeting at the Methodist church, Asberry Chapel, on the second Sunday in April, at 3 p. m. to organize a Sunday School. We will also have a lecture, Value of S. S. Instruction. Every body invited General Upchurch P. C.

Rev. J. R. Crawford will deliver an address before the Modern Woodmen of this county, at the Presbyterian church, this city, the fourth Sunday night in this month. The lodge will attend in a body. Every body is cordially invited to be present.

When a paper is printed, looking black and greasy, inferior ink is being used or the ink fountain needs adjusting. This hint is given for the benefit of a real good paper were it not for the press work.

MEN and WOMEN, sell guaranteed hose. 70 per cent. profit. Make $10 daily. Full or part time. Beginners investigate. Wear Proof, 3038 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa. 14-12

SUN TO BE HIDDEN.

First Eclipse Will Occur April 28 and Is to Be Visible Here.

On two days of this year the sun will be hidden from the view of people in certain sections of the United States. One of the eclipses will occur on April 28, and will be visible to this country with the exception of the northern and northeastern portions, the eclipse extending north as far as a line drawn through the cities of Philadelphia, Milwaukee, Butte, Montana and Portland, Oregon. The eclipse also will be visible to Mexico, Central America, the western portion of the West Indies, the eastern half of Australia, New Zealand and the Pacific Ocean, the path of totality extending from Auckland, Australia, across the Pacific Ocean almost to Central America.

An annular eclipse of the sun will occur on October 22, which will be invisible to the United States, but visible to Asia, Philippines Islands, Australia, the northern part of New Zealand and the Pacific ocean.

To My Friends.

I take this method of expressing my gratitude to the many who supported me in the piano contest. Last Saturday night when the result was announced, showing that I had won, feelings of emotion came over me that I cannot portray. Only those who rejoiced with me have but a faint idea how happily I felt. My friends were loyal from the start, and were I to write a column, clothed in the tenderest language at my command, I could not say more than this: From the depths of my heart, I thank you! I thank you!! I thank you!!!

Gratefully,
Nellie Follis.

Methodists, Attention!

The Sunday school wants you, it needs you, and you need it.

We convene next Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock the Pastor will deliver a sermonette to the children, at 11 o'clock the regular Sunday morning worship will begin. We earnestly request your presence at these services; and cordially invite others, who have no other church engagements. A welcome awaits you all.

Very truly,
B. M. Currie, Pastor.

Lays Two Eggs A Day.

Mrs. E. A. Hurt gave her oldest granddaughter, Miss Patsy Montgomery, a beautiful purple hen, that comes into her grandmother's room every day and gets on the bed and lays two eggs. A hen like this will soon lay enough eggs for Easter. She is a profitable hen.

A Card.

We desire to thank our neighbors and friends through the News, for their assistance, kindness and benevolence, and for the many expressions of sympathy extended to us in the recent loss of our home.

Mr. and Mrs. U. N. Whitlock.

Monday was county court and a fair crowd of people in town. Several very fine horses were on exhibition. There were a few mules on the market but only two or three sold, prices ruling high.

Mr. Will Young, the base ball player, met with an accident last Saturday. He was in a game at the Lindsey Wilson, a ball striking his right index finger, breaking it at the first joint.

Persons who have fencing and timber on the Disappointment road are requested to remove same in a reasonable length of time. The road at this time is so obstructed that wagons can not pass.

A mare belonging to Mr. W. G. Holladay dropped a mule colt one night last week, having only three legs. There was no sign of the right fore leg. It was killed after many people called to see it.

All parties interested in breeding to the best Saddle or Jack Stock are requested to call at A. S. Chewning's barn. Visitors who desire to inspect his stock are welcome.

Mr. G. T. Rasner has opened a family grocery in the stand formerly occupied by J. B. Rasner. Every thing is new, and the trade of the public is solicited.

See A. S. Chewning's Stock before you make up your mind.

Barred Plymouth Rock Fowls Exclusively—Eggs Eggs.

15 eggs $1.00, 100 eggs $5.00. I have a fine grade of fowl stock from the noted breeders as Pope & Pope, Louisville Ky. Mrs. Ida H. Paxton, Rollingburg, Ky.

Elbert Sullivan and Frank Wade were arrested in Russell County by Deputy U. S. Marshall Ryan and brought before the Commissioner here this morning. The trial for Sullivan was set for this morning; Wade's to-morrow. They are charged with selling whiskey.

Saw Mill for Sale.

A saw and grist mill for sale, every thing complete. New 50 H. P. boiler. Ellis Bros. & Campbell, Pellyton, Ky. 2t.

Murrell & Willis, contractors, who are erecting Mr. Charley Herriford's residence, had to lay off several days last week—waiting for shingles.

It is our understanding that a new Cumberland Presbyterian church building, located in the Cane Valley country, was dedicated last Sunday.

I will grind corn at my mill every Saturday. I will also sell shingles, and have plenty now for the market, either oak or chestnut.

12-3m E. A. McKinley

The last day of March was very disagreeable. It was very cold and snowed at intervals from morning until night. The first day of April was bright but cool.

It is quite fashionable to wear jewelry in this community. One dollars worth purchased 31,000 votes the last week of the contest.

Columbia Lodge No 230 I. O. O. F. will meet next Thursday night. There will be work, and a full attendance is desired.

Every body in this community feel relieved. The piano contest is over. The largest votes were cast the two last days.

Bell Bros, sons of Mr. John Bell, are farming at a lively rate at Montpelier. Corn ground all broke, oats sown etc.

Columbia Lodge No. 96, F. and A. M., will meet next Friday night. There will be work.

You are welcome to call and see my stock at any time. A. S. Chewning.

Boys, who are in the contest, can call at the County Judges' office and get their seed corn.

I have a nice five room cottage for rent. Dr. W. F. Cartwright.

Mr. L. T. Neat has rented Mr. J. W. Richards residence and will remove to it.

It seems but a few days since Christmas, but one-fourth of 1911 is gone.

JUDGE O'REAR.

He Announces for the Republican nomination for Governor. We give, for the benefit of the reading public, measures for which he says he will stand:

"I favor immediate redistricting of the Senatorial and Representative districts in accordance with the Constitution. (Section 33.)

"Now as never before, education and training of youth are necessary if this State is to hold its own in competition with other States. We need better schools, more of them, more children in attendance. The high school should be available to every community and each county should have at least one modern efficient manual training school.

"We must, educate, educate, educate!

WOULD HAVE WOMEN VOTE.

"I favor extended suffrage in school elections to women.

"Tax revision is demanded by the business interests of the State, and should be accorded. Able and public-spirited men, constituting a tax commission reported to the last Legislature recommending an amendment to the Constitution, proposing that one class of property be taxed for county purposes, another for city and the remainder for State purposes. Whether the plan proffered would sustain each department of the Government should have immediate and careful consideration.

"If it would, then the amendment ought to be submitted to the people for action in the meantime, I think it possible under our existing system to readjust the burden of taxation so as to raise all the revenue required at about one-half the present rate. The heaviest tax the State now pays is in bad roads. The people recently adopted a good roads amendment to the Constitution. I favor putting it into effect, so that each county may be provided with good roads.

LIQUOR TRAFFIC.

"The regulation of the liquor traffic has been upon the public mind in Kentucky for many years. The Constitution of 1891 required the Legislature to provide for submitting the question to the people of each community, so that it would be possible for each county to vote as an exclusive unit on the question of prohibiting the sale of liquor. That has never been complied with except as to counties having cities not larger than the fifth class. It is a provision for home rule, by popular vote. I favor extending the statute law so as to comply with the Constitution for a uniform county unit. That is the plank of the last Republican State platform. An amendment to the Constitution on this subject is not demanded.

DISAPPROVES "THIRD HOUSE."

"The balance of power between the public and those interests that serve it has been unsettled by the great and rapid accumulation of wealth and its concentration by means of combinations and the modern inventions of doing business on a gigantic scale. Wealth is now exercising more power in government than the people, because of its improper influence upon legislation. Its principal agency of influence is the professional lobby, known in Kentucky as the 'Third House.' To restore the equilibrium, I favor abolishing the 'Third House.' If that will not effect the desired result, then I would favor an amendment to the Constitution placing in the hands of the people the initiative and referendum in legislation of a general character involving a settling policy and the recall of public officials.

"For the same reason I favor the election of United States Senators by popular vote. For the same reason, among others, I favor the nomination of all State officers and by all parties by a compulsory primary election only, conducted by the State at public expense and by public officials, instead of, as now permitted, by primaries conducted by party committees under conditions prohibitive of a poor man's running for a State office before the public.

"I favor taking the management of the State prisons out of politics—improving both the prisons and politics. And I favor a stringent corrupt practices act that will safeguard elections."

FOR SALE—One six year old combined Red Bird horse. Would trade for cattle. Call on The News.

FOR FARMERS.

A hen of good breed ceases work in laying time only when out of condition.

What's the use of growing fruit for the worms? Better buy a good spray pump.

Fresh straw to work in makes the little chicks just as happy as it does the older birds.

The grape is one of the surest bearers, as it fruits on new wood. If some are killed it puts out fresh wood and bears grapes.

Shady runs are good for hens in hot weather; but look out that they are not damp. That makes them unhealthful.

Watch the brooder chicks. If they run with other poultry they are apt to get lousy before you are thinking about it.

If you have to keep the hens shut up, feed good, fresh, clean food and plenty of grass, lettuce clover and such things.

Lice breed fast when the weather gets warm. Houses that have been occupied by broody hens will need close looking after now.

When planting large flat seeds set them in the ground edgewise. Germination is more certain.

Rotate crops. That is, do not plant the same kind of vegetables in the same spot year after year.

Forget that potatoes were ever planted in hills; level cultivation is much better. Plant the tubers in deep furrows.

Do not let the brood sows that to farrow in the spring become too fat. Keep them thrifty and encourage exercise.

An old straw stack is an attraction to the hogs on a cold night, but such a sleeping place is bad for hogs. It breeds vermin.

Neglected fruit trees are not worth they occupy; and when pest-infested they are a positive menace to the neighborhood.

Oyster shells ground fine are excellent for supplying lime. A pound of shells contains enough lime to thoroughly coat seven dozen eggs.

To sell the calves is to hand over to the butchers all your profit. Castorate the bulls and raise every one to two-years-old, turning your grass and crops to profit.

The profit in poultry raising for market lies in hatching early pushing the chickens forward as rapidly as possible, and marketing them early in the season.

It will not do to allow ducks to share the common lot of poultry in general; not that they require more attention, but rather a different manner of handling and feeding.

The best breed of livestock is the breed that you like best and the one most likely to be profitable under your conditions. Select breeding stock from this breed and dispense with scrub animals.

The only ear of corn ever known to contain an odd number of rows of grain has been found by the Department of Agriculture, and is on exhibition at the corn show at Terre Haute, Indiana. According to C. P. Hartley, the corn expert of the bureau of plant industry.

Garden Hints.

Fall set cabbage should be cultivated as soon as they begin to grow. A top dressing of nitrate of soda at the rate of 150 or 200 pounds to the acre sowed down each side of the rows, will help them and pay well in securing more, better and earlier heads. Do not however use this application too early as it makes tender growth easily injured by frost.

Strawberry beds should be cultivated as soon as the weather begins to be warm. This will encourage growth and blooming. If the growth is not strong and healthy apply a mixture of 200 pounds of nitrate of soda 500 pounds of arid phosphate and 300 pounds muriate of phosphate of which use 400 or 500 per acre. Work this into the soil being careful not to put it into the foliage of the plants or it will burn them.

Make small sowings of lettuce radishes and other salad plants in protected locations or where they can be covered with brush or mats in case of severe weather.

Medical Society.

Russell County Medical Society will meet April the 10th, promptly at 9 o'clock a. m., in the parlors of the Hotel Hotel, Jamestown, Ky., with the following program:

Reading of the Vital Statistic Law, L. D. Hammond.
Reading of Medical Practice Law, John D. Combest.

Reading of Dental, Drugs and Pharmacy Law, W. D. G. Flanagan.

All are expected to be present promptly at 9 o'clock—not 10 or 11, but 9.

All the Physicians, Druggists, Midwives, Dentists, and every Registrar and sub-Registrar, and the Coroner of the county and his Deputies. In fact every body is earnestly solicited to be present. The Medical Society of a county is a public meeting for the good of all, and all are welcome to come and take a part, regardless of age, sex, idiosyncracies, or present or past conditions of servitude.

The weather and roads being good at this season of the year, we would not be surprised to see the able and efficient Health officer of Adair and Sanitary Inspector, Dr. U. L. Taylor, present, also the Vice President of the Russell Springs Medical Society, Dr. Sam Taylor, The Counselor of the 7th Medical District, L. F. Hammond. Let every body get busy and attend the society this year.

If all the parents, preachers, and school teachers would attend and take more interest in our societies, there would be less sickness of all kinds. You could soon be able to cut out consumption, typhoid etc. These meetings are not for the doctors only, they are to tell the people how to do to keep from being sick.

Now if Dr. Taylor is present, or other of our doctors, they might tell you to sleep where there is plenty of fresh air, take lots of out door exercise, manual work, take a bath once to three times per week, eat moderate, wash your feet from 5 to 12 times per week owing to the odor they have. Wear high heeled shoes, etc. They might recommend that some of us take a few bottles of Dr. Fildner Doestick's Four Horse Power Lung Healing Balsamic. It will feed the hungry, clothe the naked, and give common sense to the fools. This is a wonderful medicine when needed and properly taken.

Hope all will be present and take a part.

Round Up.

Jack? Why he's one of the best boys under the sun.

Yes but you ought to see him when the stars are out.

The cross-examination did not seem to worry you. Have you had any previous experience?

Client—Six children.

Lend you twenty-five louis? A pretty idea! And suppose you to die to-morrow.

Sir you insult me. I may be poor but at least I'm honest.

Was your chafing party a success.

Great! We spoiled all the food early in the evening and then we went to a resaurant.

Burglars Secure $500.

The Springfield News Leader gives this account of the robbing of the post office in that city.

"Burglar, early Wednesday morning, forced the front door of the post office and after entering proceeded to blow open the safe which was soon accomplished by the use of nitro glycerine. The safe was a large one with double doors and double lock and supposed to be burglar proof. It took two explosions to enter the safe. According to several parties here suspicious characters were seen around town Tuesday. At 2 o'clock Wednesday morning an explosion was heard by several persons which was followed by a second in about fifteen minutes. Both the outer and inner doors of the safe were blown off and into many pieces. Postmaster W. A. Waters says that about $100 in money and $400 in stamps was taken. The registered mail was not disturbed at all. After accomplishing their purpose the men walked out of town and have not since been heard of."

The Making of Money.

Truly some men apparently cannot help making money. They are gifted with a sort of second sight which shows them the value of investments and the openings for capital. Until some statute or other influence stops them such men will continue to roll up vast fortunes. Others will be made lucky by chance. No important signs appear as yet of any restrictions upon the making of great fortunes. And when such wealth is expended upon good objects like that Andrew Carnegie, John H. Convers, John S. Kennedy, and many others, it is hard to condemn it.

Undoubtedly it is the duty of every man to put forth his best efforts to make not only a good living for his family, but to provide adequately against the possible mutations of fortune and the disabilities of sickness and old age.—The Christian Herald.

LAXATIVE SENT FREE TO TRY

It may be taken for granted that there is no family that does not sometime need a laxative. If you don't know of a good laxative, or the laxative you are using is losing its effect, we want to call your attention to Dr.
Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which thousands of families are using successfully.

We have scores of letters from mothers, and scores from prominent men saying they are using it personally and giving it to their families, men like Mr. C. K. Smith of the Traffic Clearing House, Fine Bluff, Ark., and Mr. George B. Turner, a lawyer of Harlan, Ky. The thousands of mothers who use it themselves and give it to their children would take too much space to mention.

The reason they prefer Syrup Pep-sin is that it is a mild, gentle laxative- tonic that does not gripe—effective and yet so mild that babies can take it. Its tonic ingredients invigorate the body and strengthen the stomach and bowel muscles so that they again do their work naturally.

If you have been a victim of salts, pills and strong cathartics you will discard them when you use Syrup Pepsin.

You can buy a fifty cent or one dollar bottle of any druggist, but before doing so you may want to try it free. If so, send your address to Dr.
Caldwell and he will promptly forward a free sample bottle. Then, being convinced, do as others are doing and buy it in the regular way of your favorite druggist.

CHAS. S. HARRIS EDITOR.

Democratic newspaper devoted to the interest of the City of Columbia and the people of Adair and adjacent counties.

Entered at the Columbia Post-office as second class mail matter.

WED. APRIL 5, 1911.

There has been a lull in Democratic sentiment throughout the State for the last three weeks. There are two announced candidates for the nomination for Governor, but their movements, if any has been made, has been remarkably quiet. There will have to be some ginger put into this campaign; the Democracy must be aroused, and the best of feeling must prevail in order that the nominee, whoever he may be, will receive the united support of the party at the November election. Our candidates are good men, and it is going to take a good one to win if O'Rear is nominated by the Republicans. This statement cannot be denied, hence it is the imperative duty of the Democrats to close up the gaps and get ready for the hottest fight the State has ever witnessed. Forget everything that has come into the contest to bring about trouble, espouse the cause of your choice, work for him until the primary closes, and if your favorite should be defeated wheel into line and work unceasingly until the fall election for whoever wins the nomination.

Senator Thomas H. Paynter has announced his candidacy for the nomination for United States Senator, subject to the July 1st primary. He publishes a long card, going over his record since he has been in the Senate and asks an endorsement at the hands of the Democrats of Kentucky. He states that he is a member of the Judiciary Committee and is just now in a position to be of great service to the people of the State. He pays a compliment to his friend and opponent, Hon. Ollie James, and says he can do more good as a member of the Ways and Means Committee in the House of Representatives than he could possibly do in the Senate. He asks that his candidacy be given careful consideration.

The Story that Booker T. Washington, the noted negro educator, had attempted to perpetrate an out rage on a white woman, has been proven to be utterly false, and that he was knocked down and beaten without cause. President Taft and Lyman Abbott, editor of the Outlook, and other noted men have exonerated Washington, and class his treatment as a brutal attack on an innocent man. As The News mentioned the circumstance as was first reported, it takes pleasure in making the above statement.

The Republican Executive and State Central Committees met in Louisville last week and called a State Convention, to meet in Louisville, Tuesday, July 11, 1911, for the purpose of nominating a State ticket. The County mass meetings to select delegates will be held on Saturday, before July 8. Representation, one delegate for each 100 votes and one for each fraction over 50 cast at the last Presidential election. Before the committees the O'Rear forces made a fight for Lexington but were out voted.

It now looks like Hon. Jas. B. McCreary, of Madison county, will be the nominee of the Democratic party for Governor. Hon. Wm Addams, of Harrison county, has not withdrawn from the contest, but he does not seem to be making an effort for the nomination. Senator McCreary spoke at Hopkinsville Monday, saying he will be actively before the people from now until the primary. He further said that the Democratic State ticket, when nominated, will win in November.

The Whallen Bros., John and Jim, of Louisville, two of the best known politicians in Kentucky, have withdrawn from politics for all time to come. They announce that the rest of their lives will be devoted to their families.

Judge Wm. M. Reed, of Paducah, who announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for Governor, two weeks ago, has withdrawn from the contest.

In his speech at Hopkinsville Senator McCreary said he favored a platform convention to be held after the July primary. Why not before the primary?

Twenty five years ago to day it snowed all day and it is snowing to day, but there is lots of difference in the river. It was out of its banks then and there is just good boating water now.

Miss Mary E. Williams is visiting her brother, D. W. Williams, at Burnside

J. F. Hurt and Miss Mattie Melton were married last Sunday at the brides father, A. Milton Esq., Volley Smith officiating. May their paths be strewn with sunshine and flowers.

Little Bettie Irvin is visiting her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Lloyd Becks Store.

James Cole was on hands as usual yesterday to get News. James says he has found all of his iron wedges and wont have to lose any more, he is talking of having claims put to them.

Miss Lois Dillon and Mrs. J. N. Dillon went to White Bottom last Saturday to visit P. W. a t Parmley's wife who has been sick.

R. L. Snow with Roberson Bros & Co., of Louisville, was calling on our merchants at this place last week.

Mrs S. A. Stephenson was here shopping last week.

Miss Anna Baker returned from Burnside where she has been visiting her sister Mrs. J. L. Grissom for five or six weeks.

J. H. is staying with his parents a few days, nursing a felon on his thumb. He had Dr. Baker to split it and is much better.

Irvein & Lloyd is fixing to install a McCaskey Register in their store.

Ozark.

J. C. Bryant is quiet sick at this writing.

G. G. Reynolds sold a cow and calf to Pendleton and Loy for $60.00.

Miss Annie Hardin, Columbia, and Cary Cabbell Danville, were visiting in Ozark last Saturday night.

Mrs. Alice White and daughter Mrs. Nora Brinkle, Ill., are visiting the family of Jeff and John White.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Hudson have been at the bedside of their mother who has been quite sick at the home of C. S. Harris.

Mrs. Mae Moss and son, Raymond, of Greensburg, have been visiting at J. W. Morris.

Frank Montgomery, wife and twin daughters, attended the reception of Ed Nell Conover and wife at W. H. Conover last Sunday.

The low prices in poultry and eggs haven't discouraged the women as there are more young chickens now than for a long time. Women with a few old hen can do more than men do with an hundred acre farm.

The relatives and friends of Aunt Meeky Montgomery gave her a surprise birthday dinner March 24th. Meeky lives at the old home of her grand father in the house built by him when he came from Va., one hundred years ago. We used some silver spoons and a cup made by Frank Montgomery, a salt cellar brought from Liverpool England. This pair costing $5.00. We saw a home made cotton shirt that Nancy Taylor had spun, wove and made for her father near a century ago. Those present were mesdams Will, Josh, Kint, J.C. and J. B. Montgomery, Jeff White, Irvin Blair, Richard Reeves, John and Alvin Young, Burton Yates, Ellen Holladay, Ann Morris, Mary Montgomery, Jake Gabbart, Misses Liza Montgomery, Cary Cabbell, and Winnie Montgomery, June, Robt, and Kint Montgomery, and Nat White.

Irvin's Store.

There is nothing new to report from this part, but as we have been delinquent for awhile, will jot down a few lines any how.

Mr. McKinley was here to-day gathering up eggs, poultry and produce of all kinds.

Miss Esther Withers, is home after a few weeks stay with her brother, Mr. William Withers.

Mrs. Emma Cooper, and Miss Pearl Emerson were here last week visiting their sister, Mrs. Jacob Cooper.

W. S. Hughes, our sheriff, and C. A. Hammond of Russell Springs, were here Saturday.

Mr. Bryant Meece and family, and Mr. M. T. Wilson and family visited relatives here last week.

Mr. Smith, the live stock inspector was around last week, looking after the sheep.

Stanley Cooper sold one two year old horse for $115. to Finley Richardson.

Dr. Hammond sold one cow and calf to Leo Hatfield for $40.

We were glad to note the article in your last issue, by Dr. Scholl, regarding the Russell County Medical Society. The majority of the people seem to be ignorant about the vital statistic law, as is shown by their manner of reporting births, and deaths. The Dr., being called on to make out death certificates, days after the burial, even when this should be the first thing done.

Mr. W. B. Patterson, who is in the revenue service, spent Saturday at home.

Miss Ina Hulse, who has been sick for two weeks, has very much improved.

Messrs. R. T. Baker and Garnett Breeding were here from Amandaville Monday.

Mr. Fred McLean has been quite ill, at the home of his mother, for the past week.

Mr. W. L. Walker and his daughter, Miss Alice, left for the Cincinnati market Monday morning.

Messrs. E. O. Stone, W. R. Lyon, Dan Hatcher and B. H. Gilpin, all traveling men, were here last week.

Mr. Jas. Clayton Bryant, a well known citizen of the Craycraft country is lying very low, not expected to live.

Mr. Ray Montgomery finished his years' work at the State University, Lexington, and returned home last Friday night.

Mr. Anderson Murrell, who has been in college at Berea, Ky., returned home last Thursday night, to remain during the spring and summer.

Mr. J. C. Hill, of Henry County, Ill Democratic candidate for Commissioner of Agriculture, addressed the voters of Adair County last Monday.

Mrs. H. C. Wolford has received word that her sister, Mrs. J. H. Ferrell, who lives near New Haven, is very low with pulmonary trouble. Mrs. Wolford will visit her in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Richards of this place, left for Wamego, Kansas, last week where they will spend several months. Mrs. Richards has been in poor health for several months and this trip is made for her special benefit.

Mr. L. L. Frazier and wife, who have resided in Columbia, for several months, returned to their former home, Pulaski, Tenn., the first of the week. They made quite a number of friends during their stay in this place.

Mr. Henry Todd, who boarded at the Columbia Hotel, was taken very ill last week and Sunday afternoon he was removed to the home of his brother, Mr. A. D. Todd. At this writing he is reported to be in a very critical condition.

Mr. Frank Jackman and family will leave in the morning for Tampa, Fla., their future home. Mr. Jackman is a fine citizen and has an interesting family, consisting of wife and several sons and daughters. We commend them to the people of the Southern home where they will locate. Their departure from this community where they have lived for a number of years, is generally regretted.

Editor News:—

Thinking that some of my friends might like to know where I am, and how I am getting along, will say that I am conveniently located at 126 Central Avenue. My wife and children arrived here from Columbia, last Sunday, I having met them in Campbellsville. I am working for the Someraet Times, and like my job fine. Mr. Cecil Williams is editor, and Mr. Clarence Smith associate editor. Both are very fine gentlemen.

Business has been very dull since the strike began. but it is settled now, and every thing will get lively at once. Several "Scab" firemen, and one or two guards were shot during the strike, but it was not as bad as the newspapers reported it to be. An agreement was reached Saturday evening late, and you can hear the whistles of freight and passenger at all hours now. We have fourteen passengers and as many freights per day.

We get the News every Thursday morning and are very anxious to read it, for 'tis a welcome letter from dear old Adair, and especially Columbia. I had rather live in Columbia than any place on the face of the globe, but better wages caused me to be here.

Mr. R. Mont Feese, formerly of Columbia, is foreman in the Times office, and I am the only regular compositor. A young man by the name of Ware helps of evenings after school, and on Saturday.

Somerset has as fine people as I ever met. The population is about 8,000. The worst thing I have seen is, she has 13 saloons, but you rarely ever see a drunken man.

The Somerset Fair this year will be held the two last days of August and the first two days of September. A street carnival will be held here some time this spring. If any of my Columbia friends come this way, would be glad to have them call on me at the Times office, which is located on Maple Street.

With best wishes to the News force and Columbia in general, I close,

Respectfully,
E. L. Feese.

Glensfork.

Mr. I. S. Taylor and Mrs. L. T. Bradshaw have each about recovered from a serious attack of pneumonia.

Eldridge Sanders who has been in Missouri for several months came home last week.

Lenny Wilborn went to Cave City a few bays ago intending to take up a permanent abode but the country was so uninviting to him that he beat a hasty and precipitous retreat bobbing up serenely in Glensfork a few hours later.

Miss City May Taylor was married to Mr. James Selby on the 23rd, Rev. G. R. Abrel officiating. The bride is the youngest child and the only daughter of Mr. Henry Taylor of this place, the groom is a son of Mr. Fount Selby of Esto. They are both splendid young people and long life and much happiness for them is the universal wish of their many friends.

Mrs. Minta Blair was the recipient of the most elegant birthday dinner that has been spread in this neighborhood in many days on the 26th ultt. This is Mrs. Blairs 69th birthday and the dinner came in the way of a complete surprise to her. The following individuals and family partook of this repast: Messrs Irvin Loy, Joe Rosenbaum, Simon Taylor Austin Loy, Yongg Helm, A. Johnson and Masdames Ella Blair and Montra Rosenbaum.

Elmore Wilkerson of the L. W. T. S. spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents.

Owensby.

Rev James Sullivan filled his regular appointment at Moors School house Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. M. L. Owens is all smiles over the advent of a new Democrat.

Mr. Estus Barger and wife visited at Garland Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Odia Kean visited friends at Jamestown one day last week.

Mr. Charley Edwards and wife moved in their new house last week.

Mrs. M. D. Clayton and children are visiting her brother and sister at Jamestown this week.

Mrs. Joe Clayton is in very poor health.

On the 28th there was an old time log rolling at A. E. Wolfords. There was a large crowd at attendance, and it served as a reminder to the older ones present of the happy days of old, when men gathered together to enjoy the festivities on such occasion. At the noon hour a bountiful repast was served and at dawn of night the guests repaired to their homes well pleased with the events of the day.

There were five traveling salesman in our town one day last week. An evidence that there is something doing.

The health of Mrs. Barger remains about the same.

Mr. Estus Barger is now pursuing the happy life of a farmer. That is a pleasant and healthful and we hope Mr Barger will find pleasure in it.

Tarter.

We are having very cool weather and the wood houses are almost empty.

Otis Wolford, Geo. Brockman, Jack and Fred Robinson all left for Illinois, a few days ago.

T. W. Wheat was in Louisville last week.

There are a great many cases of lagrippe in this community.

Mr. T. W. Montgomery and daughter left last week for Kokomo, Indiana, the former on a visit, the latter to join her husband.

"Old aunt" Elizabeth Wheat was taken dangerously ill last week, and not expected to live.

Callie Stargell, who has been confined to her bed for a long time with consumption, died last week. Her interment was in the Jerico cemetery.

D. Tarter and John Shepherd, who have been attending school at Russell Springs this Winter, came home last week.

Mr. George Evans, of Dunnville, has rented a farm of Mr. Bill Hobson, and has taken possession.

There will be a singing school at Mt. Olive on Saturday, April 1st, to continue for a short time, conducted by Prof. Coffey.

Vester.

We are having some fine weather at present.

Mrs. Eliza Shuttles and little granddaughter, Frances May Burdett, of Lebanon, have been visiting Mrs. Shuttles sister, Mrs. Charlie Sutton, also her niece, Mrs. Maud Sandusky, of Columbia.

Mr. John Breeding lost a nice milch cow one day last week.

Misses Malinda and Lena Dooley were visiting Mrs. Altie Burton last Thursday evening.

Mr. V. B. Smythe, wife and children, of near Columbia, were visiting their parents, Mrs. S. J. Dooley, of this place, last Tuesday and Wednesday.

Misses Malinda and Lena Dooley were in Columbia last Friday.

Mr. Ed Poynter, who is very low with consumption, is no better.

Mrs. Rosa Sinclair was visiting Mrs. Altie Burton last Monday.

Mrs. Etta Burton and children were visiting her mother, Mrs. Sarah Burton, of near MaGaha, last Saturday night and Sunday.

Miss Berch Burton, of Watson, spent last week with her sister, Mrs. Anna Neat.

Born, to the wife of Mr. J. F. Neat, March the 29th, a son. Mother and baby are doing well.

Born, to the wife of Mr. Wesley Burton, March the 13th, a son.

The people in this neighborhood are all getting along nicely with their farming.

The school will be out at this place next Friday.

Craycraft.

Mrs. John Combest celebrated her birthday the 27th, with a quilting and nice dinner, and there was quite a crowd present.

Mr. Leslie Shepherd has recently returned from the west.

Mr. U. M. Grider had his farewell singing on Sunday night, March 19, at Concord, Ky., which was a great success, and was largely attended.

Mr. G. L. Blair traded a span of mules to Mr. Robinson, for two nice mares.

Mrs. Myrtle Blair had a quilt-

If any of the old hens are used a second season mate them to vigorous cockerels.

Increase the corn allowance in your evening feed during the cold damp and chilly nights.

Keep all of the best pullets and as they mature and begin to lay dispose of the poorer mixed hens.

Do not try to stimulate the hens to lay more eggs by feeding pepper or other hot stuff. It is bad business.

Incubators can be set without much trouble but it takes a mighty careful person to hatch the chickens and raise them.

Show time is in full swing and the wise breeder who expects to exhibit is in fine getting the bird into condition. How about you?

The average farmer is not equipped for raising winter chickens on a large scale, but if he has an incubator he will find it profitable to raise a few broilers for the early market.

The following paper was read before the Adair County Medical Society, by U. L. Taylor, on Friday, March the 10th, 1911:

It was announced in the Adair County News, that the program for to-day, would consist of exercises on the life and death of Dr. W. T. Grissom, who died at the beginning of this year. When a member of a Masonic Fraternity dies, the lodge attends the funeral in a body, and the members wear crape for thirty days. When a member a church dies, a committee is appointed to pass resolutions befitting the occasion, and they rarely leave off any good thing that the deceased has ever done, and they permit the bad things to be interred with the body. When a lawyer dies, a meeting of the bar is called, resolutions are passed, all the living lawyers make speeches, reciting the good deeds of the deceased. And why should not a Medical Society hold memorial exercises over the death of one of its members? Before Dr. Grissom died, when I saw the end approaching, I intended to have our society attend the funeral in a body, but I was sick myself at the time and could not attend. I regretted this very much, for Dr. Grissom and I had always been very dear friends. We were associated together in other things beside the Medical Society. Twenty years ago, Dr. McCormack, of the State Board of Health, wrote to me asking me to name two doctors which together with me, should constitute a Board of Health of Adair County. I named Dr. Grissom and Dr. William Blair, of Glenville, and the same three were appointed every two years for fifteen years. Two years ago, Dr. Blair resigned, but Dr. Grissom continued to fill that place until the day of his death. He remained loyal to me always. I only had to indicate to him what I wanted done, and he was always ready to do it. Nearly all this time he served without pay, because I was all this time the Health Officer, and the Health Officer got what little pay there was in the Board, and the other members served without remuneration. For this he never was known to grumble. One time Dr. Grissom became dissatisfied at something the Board had done, and sent in his resignation to the State Board of Health, and Dr. McCormack asked me to name a successor, and I promptly named Dr. Grissom. He was reappointed, and that was the end of the only unpleasantness. He was always ready to give or take advice. As a practitioner, I knew him intimately during his whole career. We have been called together on many occasions, and whether it was my patient or his, an outsider seeing us together treating the case never could have told. He was always affable and pleasant, as ready to take advice as to give it. As a diagnostician he was above the average. He was very painstaking in the examination of a patient, seemed to try to get to the bottom of every case, and when he had made his diagnosis, he never was at a loss for an appropriate remedy. His success was equal to the best, and in his hands I always considered a patient as safe as if he had been in the hands of any other physician.

He joined the Medical Society here at its first organization, and during all ups and downs he hung to it. He was always among the first to pay his dues, as the records will show, and he was surpassed by only one country member in attending the meetings of the Society, and that one member was Dr. William Blair, of Glenville. When put upon the program, he nearly always came prepared, and in discussing the papers of other members he would never dodge the question, but always had something to say that was pertinent. As a collector of his bills he greatly surpassed me, and upon several occasions when the same persons would owe both of us he would make some fix up in which he would always remember me as well as himself. But it was at his home among his family that he appeared best. His wife was a cousin to me, and she was indeed and in truth a help meet for him. He enjoyed the company of his friends and loved to see them come. He prepared liberally good things for the table, and his wife, who was a good cook, prepared them in such a way that it was always a pleasure to sit at his table. But he has gone, gone the way of all the earth, and we shall never see his face again. Peace to his ashes.

DISCUSSION BY THE SOCIETY.

Dr. W. R. Grissom said, I have known Dr. W. T. Grissom from his youth. He was a nephew of mine, and I knew him from the time that he commenced the practice of medicine. I have met him many times in practice, and always found him the perfect gentleman that he seemed to be. Always courteous, gentle and fair in consultation, and I endorse fully the paper read by Dr. Taylor.

Dr. W. F. Cartwright said, I have met Dr. Grissom very often in practice, and found him all that has been said about him. He was always kind and pleasant. Dr. Taylor in his paper, has not said too much.

Dr. C. M. Russell said, that in all of his meetings with Dr. Grissom he had always been pleased in every particular. He was always generous and kind, and I was always willing to leave a patient of mine in his hands. I fully endorse the paper.

Dr. H. B. Simpson said, I am a young doctor, and have met with Dr. Grissom only occasionally, but have always found him a gentleman, and I think Dr. Taylor's paper is all right.

Dr. William Blair submitted the following resolutions, which were adopted:

Whereas, In view of the loss we have sustained by the death of our friend and associate, Dr. W. T. Grissom, and the still heavier loss sustained by those who were nearest and dearest to him; therefore be it

Resolved, That it is but a just tribute to the memory of the departed to say, that in regretting his removal from our midst, we mourn for one who was in every way, worthy of our respect and regard.

2. That we sincerely condole with the family of the deceased on the dispensation, with which it has pleased Divine Providence to afflict them, and we commend them for consolation to Him Who orders all things for the best, and whose chastisements are meant in mercy. Whom the Lord loveth He chasteneth.

3. That this heartfelt testimonial of our sympathy and sorrow be forwarded to the family of our departed friend, and also to the State Medical Journal for publication.

Sheep.

Good sheep are profitable when well handled, and in districts of country adapted to sheep. Of course, sheep do best on dry land low, moist or swampy lands are not suited to the sheep. The fenced pasture, fenced hog tight is the proper thing. As to the number of sheep an acre of land will produce, some acres produce ten times more grass than others because they are sodded closer. The best illustration we can give to guide in this regard would be in comparison to cattle. It has always been estimated that a cow in pasture, hay and feed, will consume about the equal of eight to ten sheep. Sheep do not necessarily need large areas to graze over. In the eastern and New England States the farms are fenced with very small pastures, often but three to five acres in an enclosure, and the sheep do well. It is a good plan to change sheep to other pastures where the enclosures are very small. There are insect enemies of the sheep, but not anything very serious. The sheep tick is easily gotten rid of by dipping. Intestinal, stomach and lung worms are readily destroyed by a few doses of turpentine and oil. The main thing is to select the breed of sheep you fancy most, then get a pure bred ram and breed to a decided improvement each year in the crop of lambs. There is no class of stock that the small farmer can breed and handle to more profit, for the investment, than sheep, except poultry.—Ex and yet sleepless Hiram Scranton, of Clay City, Ill., coughed and coughed. He was in the mountains on the advice of five doctors, who said he had consumption, but found no help in the climate, and started home. Hearing of Dr. King's New Discovery, he began to use it. "I believe it saved my life," he writes "for it made a new man of me, so that I can now do good work again." For all lung diseases, coughs, colds, la grippe, asthma, croup, whooping cough, hay fever, hemorrhages, hoarseness or quinsy, its the best known remedy. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. "Twenty years ago there were 55 foggy days in London during the winter months, whereas in 1909-10 there were only 11 during the same period. The fog fiend has been scotched, if not killed," said Sir James Crichton at the annual dinner of the Sanitary Inspectors' association.

OLD TIME OPERATORS.

Many of Them Graduated From the Key to the Millionaire Class.

There was recently held in New York a convention of former telegraph operators. These men formerly earned $12, $15 and $20 a week. A few of them got $25. Now of the thousand who attended the convention many are millionaires and multimillionaires. Nearly every one of them has attained success in professions or business far separated from the telegraphic keyboard.

These men have an organization called the Old Time Telegraphers and Historical association. The recent convention was the twenty-fifth, and the members hailed from every state in the Union.

Few persons know that Recorder Goff of New York once was a telegraph operator. He belongs to the Old Timers.

So does Andrew Carnegie, who was graduated from the job of fireman in a small engine room in a Pennsylvania town to the telegraph office of a Pennsylvania railroad station. In the intervals of shovelling coal Mr. Carnegie learned telegraphy. The engine room was in the basement of the telegraph station. He spent all of his spare time in the office upstairs. The operator in charge took a fancy to the sturdy little Scotch lad and taught him the mysteries of the keyboard. When the operator gave up his job he recommended Carnegie as his successor. Mr. Carnegie can still send and receive.

Thomas A. Edison got his first love of electricity while working as a telegraph operator. Though he is almost as deaf as a post now, he can still receive. He says every tick of the sounder comes as distinctly to him as it did thirty years ago. Mr. Edison wouldn't miss one of the reunions of the Old Time telegraphers for a small fortune.

The president of the association is John C. Barclay, general manager of the Western Union Telegraph company and its chief electrical engineer. A quarter of a century back Mr. Edison and Mr. Barclay worked side by side in the operating room on the top floor of the Western Union building.

W. C. Brown, vice president of the New York Central road, is another Old Timer who began his business career as a telegraph operator.

Assistant Postmaster General P. V. De Graw is an enthusiastic Old Timer. So is Levi Weil, president of the Adams Express company; also Robert C. Clowry, president of the Western Union. T. C. Eckert, now a retired multimillionaire, always attends the reunions.

George, Edwin, Howard and Frank Gould are expert telegraphers. Unlike the other members of the Old Timers, they never earned a living from the keyboard.

Jay Gould had an idea that a practical knowledge of telegraphing was a valuable asset. He had his eldest son, George, taught before he was out of his teens, also his second son, Edwin. When Howard and Frank became old enough to enter upon business life the first work they undertook was the study of telegraphy.

THE COMING MAN.

To Be a Helpless Creature Dependent on Mechanical Contrivances.

The mechanical peril is a difficulty which has not escaped the attention of the present parliament, says Charles Edward Jerningham in London Truth. The special commission which was recently appointed to inquire into the matter has issued an interim report, and the following evidence of one of the witnesses examined is of especial interest:

Can you write? No; I use a typewriter.
Can you sing? No; I use a phonograph.
Can you play any musical instrument? No; I use the piano.
Can you sew? No; I use a sewing machine.
Can you draw? No; I use a kodak.
Can you walk? No; I use a bicycle, a motor car, a train car or a train.
Can you see? No; I use glasses.
Can you hear? No; I use a trumpet.
Can you digest? No; I use digestives.
Can you sleep? No; I use narcotics.
Can you form an independent political, literary, artistic or ordinary opinion? No; I belong to an "organized" political party and take my opinions in this direction from the wire puliers. As regards literature and art, I receive my impressions of these matters from the reviews in the newspapers and in ordinary circumstances I follow general public opinion.

Can you breathe? No; I use artificial respiration.

From these answers it would appear that the man of the immediate future will be entirely dependent upon mechanical contrivances, organizations and medical resources; that he will only have emerged from one form of slavery after generations of struggling to enter into another which is more absolute. Take away from the man of 2005 his typewriter, phonograph, piano, kodak, bicycle, motor car, train, sewing machine, spectacles, digestives, narcotics and newspapers, and he will be an utterly helpless creature.

Lincoln's Birthplace Sold.

The farm where Abraham Lincoln was born, which is near the little village of Hodgenville, Ky., was recently sold for $3,000, much less than was expected. The purchaser was R. J. Collier of New York. He will get possession in December. Mr. Collier has not yet decided what he will do with it, and it probably was bought as an investment. The farm comprises 110 acres, and the price was not much more than the land is worth for agricultural purposes.

Extinct Species of Camel.

A bulletin of an extinct species of camel that once roamed over prehistoric California has been issued by the zoological department of the University of California. In the region about the Potter creek cave, Shasta county, were unearthed various portions of the camels that existed during the quaternary age.

Gradyville.

Plenty of snow and rain last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Winters are now keeping house in our city.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Bell have moved to their farm near Nell.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Pendleton's son is very sick with pneumonia fever at this date.

Died, on the 26th with a complication of diseases, Mr. J. B. Cragg, age about 68 years. He was a christian man and lived up to his profession and when the summons came he was ready.

We must say here that our farmers have made good use of the good weather that we had during the past week and a great many of them are through breaking corn and tobacco ground. Our wheat crop is looking reasonably well for this season of the year, and the tobacco plants of a great many beds that were sown have come up and the prospects at the present is good for plenty of plants.

Mrs. Hill and her assistant, Miss Bragg, opening of hats brought a large crowd of ladies to our town last Saturday, and their display was very beautiful.

Mrs. Eugene Nell is spending this week with relatives at Edmonton.

We want to say to our friend Jo K. Sparks, that we regret very much right at this particular time to say to him that myself nor his brother Charlie, can not furnish him with the material wanted, but if the March snows and cold wind continues much longer, feed scarce, we certainly can furnish all the horse and mule hides he wants, provided he will pay the express on same. Now Jo, just come down to the truth in the case we are satisfied from the tone of your spicy letter in the News, that you would enjoy living back at old Gradyville, and on the sweet streams of old big creek playing hide and seek much better than you are enjoying the life of a soldier boy. We only wish you a long and happy life and that you may live to see the expiration of your allotted time in the service and land safe in old Gradyville, and take charge of Uncle Sam's affair again from that place to the good old town of Edmonton, and be the same boy you was in days gone by. Success to you Jo K.

Mr. O. A. Beck sold a fine mule to Mr. Clay Parrish of Burksville last Friday for $200.

Clay Parrish bought a mule from Davis Butler Monday and sold the same mule to Shelby and Ross Thursday.

Jordan Peacock.

This noted Saddle Stallion will make the present season at Gradyville, Ky., and will serve mares at the low price of $15.00 to insure a mare with foal. Jordan is in fine shape, looks like a colt. He is so well known that he needs no introduction to the public. He is known from the Pacific to the Atlantic Ocean. Jordan has sired from 50 to 100 colts every year for 14 years, and most all of them have been sold from weanlings to 4-year-olds at from $100 to $2,000. There has been a goodly number of them sold from 500 to $1,000. There has been over One Hundred Thousand Dollars paid to the people of Adair and joining counties for this horse's colts.

I will also stand NOBLE PEACOCK, a son of Jordan Peacock, on the same terms as Jordan Peacock. NOBLE is a very fine young horse. He was shown in two rings at the Columbia Fair, last year and won each time. There were 8 entries in one ring and Noble won the blue tie. His first dam was by Artist Jewel, 2nd dam by Cromwell Denmark, 3rd dam by Artist 75. From the above breeding you will see there is no better bred one living than NOBLE PEACOCK.

I will also stand 2 fine Jacks, HIGHWAY and BLACK DIAMOND at $10.00 to insure a mare with foal. Highway's colt won the blue at the Columbia Fair last year, and several of them sold for $100 at weaning time. These are the best Jacks that I have ever seen in Adair County.

BLACK DIAMOND is under 3 years old. Every one that has looked at him say that he is the best one they have ever seen.

Money due in all cases when the mare is traded or moved from the neighborhood. (Plug mares will not be bred to this stock.)

Feed at 25 cents per day or pasture after April 20th at 50 cents per week.

Respectfully,

W. L. Grady.

ARWED

This fine Coach Horse will make the season of 1911 at J. C. Browning's barn, near Milltown, and will be permitted to serve mares at the low sum of $10.00 to insure a living colt. ARWED is a fine breeder, and has some of the best colts in Adair County. When a mare is known to be in foal and is traded or sold, the season must be paid.

JACK CHINN

as fine a Jack as there is in this section, will make the season at same place and will serve mares at $6.00 to insure a living colt. He is well known as a breeder and needs no boosting.

J. C. Browning.

Casey Creek.

Mr. W. O. Hendrickson and little daughter, Miss Irene, were at this place Saturday.

Mr. Robert Caskey, a student of L. W. T. S., was visiting at Mr. S. S. Goode's from Friday until Monday.

Mr. S. S. Goode was in Louisville last week, purchasing his Spring stock of goods.

Mrs. Mary Hendrickson, of Clements-ville, was visiting her daughter, Mrs. Nora Burress, from Saturday until Monday.

Mr. C. B. Mayes died at her home at this place the 22nd. She leaves four children—three daughters and one son. Mrs. Mayes has lived here for twenty-four years, and was regarded a good woman by all her neighbors. She was a member of the Christian church, and the children have the deepest sympathy of this community.

I have taken charge of PHELPS BROS. HOTEL and will endeavor to run same to the satisfaction of old and new customers. Livery and Feed stable in connection with the HOTEL. Special pains taken in the care and feeding of stock.

I will also continue in the Implement and Hardware Business and carry a good line of Field seeds.
